(c) Principal activities

The principal activities of Half the Sky Foundation Australia Limited during the financial year were to further establish its local operations and support base in Australia including the employment of a full time Chief Development Officer, the ongoing operation of its initial, successful joint development project with Half The Sky Foundation in China based at Changsha in Hunan Province, and the commencement of a second, similar project at Kunming in Yunnan province.

Short-term and long-term objectives

HTSA's short-term objectives are to:

- Implement model infant nurture, preschool and youth mentoring programs to directly benefit orphaned and disadvantaged children; programs develop emotional, social and intellectual wellbeing and provide early education and life skills vital for successful transition from institutional life into community schools, adoptive families and society;
- Implement model permanent foster family programs for the nurture, education and development of children with special needs that generally preclude prospects for adoption;
- Establish all model programs as both demonstrations of best practice and training centres for Chinese welfare institution administrators, teachers and caregivers in effective methods of nurturing care that can benefit all at-risk children; and

Directors' Report

1. General information continued

(c) Principal activities continued

 Expansion of support and funding in Australia for HTSA's work in China among existing networks including directors, members and individual supporters.

HTSA's long-term objectives are to:

- Implement multiple model programs, training bases, mentoring relationships and training pathways within the Chinese welfare system to facilitate and support widespread and permanent adoption of Half the Sky-inspired best practice models and methods of care by officials, administrators, teachers and caregivers for the long term benefit of all orphaned and disadvantaged children;
- Ultimately hand over direct responsibility for and operation of all established model programs in Chinese welfare institutions to local authorities and staff to operate as their own for the long term adoption and sustainability of Half the Sky-inspired best practice programs and methods of care;
- Eventual transition from providing programs directly to children to a focus on training, coaching and mentoring within the Chinese welfare system post the hand over of model programs to local stakeholders; and
- Expansion of support and funding in Australia for HTSA's work in China in the wider public, corporate and philanthropic sectors.

Strategies

To achieve its stated objectives, HTSA has adopted the following strategies:

- A strategic and practical partnership between HTSA and Half the Sky Foundation (HTS) and its Chinese government and non-government partners at national, provincial and local levels to implement HTSA's objectives on the ground in China. China-based knowledge, networks and partnerships with stakeholders in China, especially government authorities, are critical to achieving HTSA's short-term and long-term objectives;
- Development and implementation in 2011 of an initial joint HTSA-HTS 5-year project in China for the creation and operation of a model Half the Sky Children's Centre and provincial training base at Changsha in Hunan province; working in partnership also with the local Changsha Welfare Institution and provincial stakeholders for long term sustainability of programs and training;
- Commencement in July, 2014 of a second joint major development project, modelled on the successful HTSA-HTS Changsha project, at Kunming in Yunnan province;

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended 30 June 2015

1 Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) General information

The financial report is for Half the Sky Foundation Australia Ltd as an individual entity, incorporated and domiciled in Australia. Half the Sky Foundation Australia Ltd is a company limited by guarantee.

(b) Basis of preparation

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. The company is a not-for-profit entity for financial reporting purposes under Australian Accounting Standards.

Australian Accounting Standards set out accounting policies that the AASB has concluded would result in financial statements containing relevant and reliable information about transactions, events and conditions. Material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and have been consistently applied unless stated otherwise.

The financial statements, except for the cash flow information, have been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs, modified, where applicable, by the measurement at fair value of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities. The amounts presented in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest dollar.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held-at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts.

(d) Restricted / unrestricted funds

Restricted funds are funds received or reserves held that must be spent on the purpose for which they were received or are held. They comprise of donations where the donor indicates a preference for the use of the funds and donations received in response to specific purpose appeals.

(e) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

(f) Property, plant and equipment

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost or fair value less, where applicable, any accumulated depreciation and impairment of losses.

Depreciation

Property, plant and equipment is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the assets useful life to the company, commencing when the asset is ready for use.

ABN 79 137 332 364

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended 30 June 2015

1 Summary of significant accounting policies continued

The depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable asset are shown below:Fixed asset classDepreciation rateComputer equipment33%

At the end of each annual reporting period, the depreciation method, useful life and residual value of each asset is reviewed.

(g) Income tax

No provision for income tax has been raised as the company is exempt from income tax under Div 50 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

(h) Employee benefits

Provision is made for the company's liability for employee benefits arising from services rendered by employees to the end of the reporting period. Employee benefits that are expected to be wholly settled within one year have been measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liability is settled.

Employee benefits are presented as current liabilities in the statement of financial position if the company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date regardless of the classification of the liability for measurement purposes under AASB 119 Employee Benefits.

(i) Deferred income

Deferred income comprises of amounts received in advance for fundraising events to be held subsequent to balance date.

(j) Revenue and other income

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised on transfer of goods to the customer as this is deemed to be the point in time when risks and rewards are transferred and there is no longer any ownership or effective control over the goods.

Interest revenue is recognised using the effective interest rate method, which, for floating rate financial assets, is the rate inherent in the instrument.

Donation income is recognised when received.

All revenue is stated net of the amount of goods and services tax.

ABN 79 137 332 364

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended 30 June 2015

1 Summary of significant accounting policies continued

(k) Expenses

All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category.

Fundraising costs are those incurred in seeking voluntary contributions by donation and do not include costs of disseminating information relating to the activities carried on by the company.

Management and administration costs are those incurred in connection with administration of the company and compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

(I) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payable are stated inclusive of GST. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows in the statement of cash flows are included on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is classified as operating cash flows.

(m) Comparative figures

Comparatives are consistent with prior years, unless otherwise stated.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of Half the Sky Foundation Australia Ltd

Report on the Financial Report

We have audited the accompanying financial report of Half the Sky Foundation Australia Ltd, which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2015, the statement of surplus and deficit and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, and the directors' declaration.

Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards - Reduced Disclosure Requirements and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the company's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012.
