"I wanted to help find the ways and means of putting loving arms around every child. With your generous support we can continue expand our reach. In doing this together we will give the orphaned children of China a second chance..."

Guy Russo, retired CEO - Wesfarmers Department Store Division, and Chairman of the Board of Directors - OneSky.

"The best world we can create is one where we are all connected under a shared humanity – irrespective of borders. That is why I stand behind the work of OneSky Australia – helping children who need the same love we all require to thrive."

Kylie Kwong, chef, author, television presenter, restaurateur and Honorary Patron – OneSky Australia.

"I believe success in business and in life comes about when like-minded individuals connect through things they are passionate about... in this instance changing the future of children and indeed the future that we all share."

Daniel Phillips, Executive Director – Macquarie Bank and Board Member – OneSky Australia.
